INVESTOR PRESENTATION Q4 2022 RESULTS

1 MARCH 2023

Q4 2022 RESULTS (UNAUDITED)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY: TRANSFORMING FROM A STAND-ALONE IT PLAYER INTO A CHALLENGER IN DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY AND IT-TELCO CONVERGENCE

- Following a number of large-scale acquisitions in Hungary and the Western Balkans, 4iG has evolved from an IT systems integrator into a regional technology-infocommunications group.
- 4iG Group has created a national telecommunications group by merging 4iG's telecommunication portfolio with Antenna Hungária. In early 2023, Antenna Hungária together with the Hungarian state, represented by Corvinus International Investment Ltd. acquired Vodafone Hungary, where 4iG Group owns 51% majority stake.
- With the acquisition of Vodafone Hungary, 4iG has gained a significant share of the mobile market in Hungary, and is now the second largest domestic company in mobile voice services, as well as a market leader in fixed internet services and television broadcasting.
- The strategic partnership agreement signed with Rheinmetall AG (in Q1 2022), a global defense and security group headquartered in Germany, became a major investor in 4iG, and we are now engaged in joint ventures in the IT and defense industries.
- 4iG's issuer rating was upgraded by one notch to "BB-/Stable" by Scope Ratings as a result of its improved competitive position, business profile, profitability, and credit metrics following the acquisition of Vodafone Hungary.
- In 2023, the 4iG Group will continue to focus on integrating the newly acquired companies and will exploit synergies offered by fixed-mobile convergence and IT-telco convergence, building cross-selling channels and consolidating infrastructure.
- 4iG Group including Vodafone Hungary has an FY 2022 proforma net revenues of HUF 586 Bn and normalized proforma EBITDA of HUF 182 Bn

Note:

-proforma means: the respective companies acquired would have been part of 4iG Group from 1st Jan 2022

-normalized means: eliminating non-recurring, extraordinary, and irregular or non-core expenses and income

4iG KEPT MARKET LEADER POSITION AS HUNGARY'S TOP IT SYSTEMS INTEGRATOR:

- Despite the unfavourable macroeconomic environment, rising inflation, and high energy costs, the IT division managed to ease the effects of the contractionary fiscal policy in Hungary and the subsequent decrease in public procurement by expanding sales channels.
- The division experienced high operating costs due to wage increases, organizational structure changes, and restructuring.
- The IT division finalized its most valuable projects in Q4, following industry norms and bolstered its overall performance and profitability in the quarter.
- The primary sources of revenue in 2022 were not only limited to traditional systems integration projects and custom application development but also included innovative technology-based solutions such as industrial digitalization, cybersecurity, cloud services, containerization. Moreover, revenues from IT services in the financial sector were also significant.
- A new strategic milestone was reached with the launch of the R4 joint venture. The joint venture is fully operational with a structured HR, internal IT, marketing and back-office teams, and set to carry out the first service requirements starting Q2 2023.

*Holding Segment: includes expenses related to strategic and operational governance of the Group and the one-off items not allocated to the operative segment.

HUNGARY:

- Q4 and FY 2022 numbers were impacted by the imposition of supplementary telecom tax and increased operating costs due to high energy prices, inflation, and wages.
- Antenna Hungária delivered consistent results YOY in its core business segments of telecommunication and broadcasting. Significant one-off items impacted profitability: while the decline in revenue is a result of the downsizing of the low-margin events management business, the FINA world championship 2022 contributed to an increase in revenue.
- DIGI delivered positive results and performed a growth in revenue from market price increases and achieved significant savings on OPEX.
- Invitech achieved significant organic revenue growth as a result of newly acquired customers, contract renewals and newly implemented services. Persistent growth achieved in its core connectivity business as well as IT Security and Cloud services.

ALBANIA:

- ONE Albania delivered strong continuous revenue and EBITDA growth as a result of its B2C contracts and ARPU uplift mainly driven by prepaid to postpaid migration strategy.
- The legal merger of One Telecommunications and ALBtelecom is complete, and a new leadership team is in place. The merger has shown robust results in staff cost optimization and cross selling of fixed-mobile tariff packages.
- Fiber rollout on track, cross selling through combined packages, and postpaid tariffs with unlimited data offerings.

MONTENEGRO:

- B2C postpaid continues to deliver strong organic revenue growth fueled by existing base and an increase of migration from prepaid to postpaid.
- Stable EBITDA growth is driven by increase in revenues while keeping a strict cost control.
- Successful spectrum investment: 2X10 MHz bands in the 700 MHz spectrum and in total 140 MHz in the 3.6 GHz spectrum.
